A strong Métis culture exists here, being the largest Métis community in Manitoba. Exhibits of the Métis culture have returned from Smithsonian Institute in Washington, DC, soon to be exhibited at home in a new Exhibit building still under review. Previously a Saulteaux and Metis fishing site when first visited by Roman Catholic priests in 1826. Commercial fishing has played a large part in the lifeblood of this RM since its inception in 1882.

Some winters a Manipogo Festival is held to celebrate the legend of the sea serpent, Manipogo- first sighted in 1908, last sighted in 2012.

Summer festivals - Métis Days celebrates the unique Metis culture and nature of the area.

In the northwest corner of the RM at Oak Point, a heritage marker of the postage stamp Province of Manitoba.

Nature walks public beaches, sandy beaches, fishing, golfing, bonfires, ice fishing, snowmobiling, sunrises & golden sunsets.

Lockport Community

This local gathering place for thousands of years for Indigenous peoples continues today with local restaurants, parks, markets, and great fishing spots. Once only a ferry could get you or your goods across the mighty Red River. In 1910 St. Andrews Lock and Dam was completed, forming a bridge connecting the two sides of Lockport. With less than 500 permanent residents this thriving gathering place hosts locally-owned restaurants, stores, and historic Drive-In restaurants that started over 90 years ago. Lockport is a gathering spot for American White Pelicans and Double-crested Cormorants.

You will see them glide and dive for fish, playing in the area as they wait for their daily feeds. Drive past on the west side and watch from a distance as the birds soar and the fishing boats bob on the river. Go to the Lockport Provincial Heritage Park, located on the lower northeast bank of the Red River at Lockport, which contains one of Manitoba's most important archaeological sites. Explore Lockport this year! Come for a drive, knowing that construction on the bridge may slow your journey. Highway 9 (Main St) accesses River Road and the west side businesses. PR 204 (Henderson Hwy) brings you along the river as it winds its way north of Winnipeg. Find east side businesses easier by this access or use Highway 59 to get to Lockport quicker.
